

1st Course – Trudy’s White Gazpacho – Creamy & cold white gazpacho loaded with fresh cucumbers, grapes, cherry tomatoes, and peppers. This recipe is from LeClaire legend Trudy Rogers.

Paired with Toast sparkling wine from Jam Cellars in California. Juicy aromas of Melon, white peach and orange blossom explode into tropical pineapple and ripe honeydew with tiny bubbles and a crisp, light toastiness on the palate.

2nd Course – Stuffed Dates – Dates stuffed with Chevre blended with almonds, and cranberries gently warmed. Rich, slightly sweet and delightful pairs perfectly with this Chardonnay.

Paired with Butter Chardonnay from Jam Cellars. Rich, Bold and luscious, these grapes are juicy, ripe and bursting with flavor. Cold fermenting and its oak aging give this Chardonnay an easy to love lush creaminess brimming with stone fruit and baked lemon with a lovely long vanilla finish. It will melt in your mouth.

3rd – Slices of Marinated roasted Pork loin with a mandarin orange and grand marnier sauce served with a citrus cous cous.

Paired with Fluers de Prairie crafted in the traditional provincial style. It’s salmon color leads to delicate flavors of strawberry, rose petals & herbs, with bright refreshing acidity.

4th Duck Breast - Seared Maple leaf farms duck breast with a cranberry mostaza sauce, served with roasted baby carrots.

Paired with Jam, from Jam cellars. Blackberries, black plums, black currant, cassis hints make this easy to love Cabernet all about the fruit. Harvested at perfect ripeness, this cab bursts with lush berries on the nose and the palate. New oak aging brings a smoothness and adds a lingering touch of vanilla to the finish.

5th – Mixed Berry Mousse – Blueberries, Blackberries, and strawberries pureed into a light & fluffy mousse, layered with whipped cream and topped with fresh berries.

Paired with Gouguenheim Malbec bubbles – This sparkler is beyond unique. 100% Malbec grapes give this delicate wine lots of red fruit aromas of cherries and strawberries. Very fresh, balanced acidity, with small and brilliant bubbles.
